Hamburg, April 22. N. S.

PRince Menzikoff has ſent one of his Officers to the Senate of Dantzick, to let them know, that his Maſter had authoriz'd him, as well by Word of Mouth, as by Writing, to terminate the Differences that were between his Czariſh Majeſty and that City, and deſir'd them, at the ſame time, to ſend two Senators with full Powers to treat of and conclude thoſe Matters: But no Anſwer is as yet return'd; from whence it is concluded, that the Senate are of Opinion, that the Czar has already receiv'd ſufficient Sums of Mony from them, without their being liable to any farther Demands. The King of Denmark is now at Scanderbourg, and has given Order, that the Paſſage of Seeland ſhall be open'd upon the Firſt of May. The ſeveral Miniſters who are to aſſiſt at the Imperial Commiſſion, to compoſe the Troubles of this City, had Yeſterday a particular Conference at the Houſe of the Count de Schonborn, and expect only the Baron de Grote to begin their Seſſions.

Bruſſels, April 25. N. S. The States of Flanders have conſented to the ſix hundred thouſand Florins, demanded as the Contingent of that Province, towards furniſhing the Imperial and Palatin Auxiliary Troops, that are to ſerve on this ſide, with Bread and Forage, during the approaching Campaign. The Province of Hainault having granted only ninety thouſand Florins of the hundred thouſand they were to contribute for the ſame Service, Baron Heems, the Emperor's Miniſter, ſet out Yeſterday for Mons, in order to induce thoſe States to furniſh their whole Proportion. Two Regiments of Imperial Horſe, with one of Huſſars, paſs'd the Rhine on the Nineteenth at Bon, and are advancing towards this Place. Prince Eugene of Savoy having left the Hague on the Twenty-ſecond, was expected Yeſterday at Gand, on his way to the Army in Flanders. The laſt Accounts from the two Armies in Artois, left them in the ſame Situation as when the former Letters came away; the bad Weather ſtill continuing, and the Roads being render'd impracticable: But the Intelligences from the Enemy inform us, that the Mareſchal Villars, who left Paris on the Eighteenth, was hourly expected there.

Utrecht, April 26. N. S. Upon Saturday the Twenty third Inſtant a General Conference, as uſual, was held at the Town-houſe; wherein the Miniſters of the Allies having inquir'd of thoſe of France, whether they were yet ready to give in their Anſwer in Writing: They ſaid, they were not; whereupon it was afterwards propos'd and agreed to, that the General Meetings ſhould for ſome time be ſuſpended, until the French Plenipotentiaries ſhould give notice that they were prepared. All the Miniſters of the Allies aſſiſted at this Conference, except ſome few that were not return'd from the Hague, as it was expected. The ſame Morning Sir James Wiſhart came hither from that Place, having concluded the Affairs which he had to tranſact with the States-General. He is adviſ'd to go to Aix la Chapelle for his Health, and only waits for the Arrival of Letters from England, before he proceeds on his Journey thither. The Earl of Strafford and Count Sinzendorff return'd hither from the Hague in the Evening, and Yeſterday the Miniſters of the Allies agreed to defer Meeting at the Town-houſe till Monday next; but in the mean time they frequently hold particular Conferences with one another. The Duke of Ormond has this Morning ſignify'd his Arrival at Rotterdam to the Earl of Strafford, who will ſet out in the Evening to meet his Grace at the Hague. The Baron de Soffenberg, Plenipotentiary on the part of the Circle of Swabia, has notify'd his Arrival here. Letters from ſeveral Parts of Switzerland adviſe, that the Cantons of Berne and Zurich have order'd ſix thouſand Men to march into the Country of the Abby of St. Galle, to defend the Inhabitants in their Priviliges againſt the Encroachments of the Abbot, who has caus'd ſeveral Forces to march into the County of Togemburg, and that the foremention'd Cantons have ten thouſand Men more in a readineſs, if there ſhould be any occaſion for their Service.

Hague, April 26. N. S. His Grace the Duke of Ormond, who ſet ſail from Harwich on the Twenty third Inſtant, with a Convoy of ſeven Men of War, two Yachts, and about forty Tranſports, arriv'd at the Mouth of the Maes Yeſterday Morning; where meeting with a contraty Tide, his Grace took the Boat, and went directly to Rotterdam, from whence he came to this Place about Ten laſt Night, accompany'd by ſeveral General Officers, and other Perſons of Quality. The Tranſports, having on Board Recruit-Horſes, and Cloathing for Her Majeſty's Troops, are got ſafe into the Goree. The Duke of Ormond went this Morning to viſit the Preſident of the Week and the Grand Penſionary, and has ſince been Complimented, upon his Arrival, by the chief Perſons of Diſtinction reſiding here. The Earl of Strafford having receiv'd Advice, at Utrecht, that his Grace is landed, has ſent him word by an Expreſs, that he will meet him there to Morrow.

Falmouth, April 17. On the Fifteenth ſail'd Her Majeſty's Ship the Monk, and the Ships formerly mention'd, with the Union Packet, Capt. Jones, with two Mails for Lisbon. This Day came in here a Tranſport from St. Malo, with a hundred Priſoners.

Plymouth, April 18. Yeſterday the Tilbury, with about 12 Merchant Ships for Lisbon. The ſame time ſail'd the Kinſale and Lanceſton, with about Twenty five Merchant Ships for Newfoundland, and the Dolphin and Lizard with about Forty Sail for Wales.
